9. Period of unemployment

Please fill in the schedule below detailing your daily status during unemployment, including Saturdays and Sundays. Complete the schedule starting from the first day of unemployment and ending when you submit your claim to Kela. Also report if you have been working or ill.

You can submit your first claim after one week of unemployment.

Indicate if you participate in an activity agreed with the Employment and Economic Development Office or some other employment-promoting service or activity, e.g., labour market training, job try-out, rehabilitative work activity, or if you have been absent from the agreed activity. Absence from training or studies need not be reported. Also indicate if the absence is due to your own illness, illness of a child under 10 years of age, carrying out of a public position of trust or an employment-related reason, such as a job interview. If the absence due to your illness lasts for more than 3 consecutive days of participation, you should submit a certificate from a doctor or nurse to Kela.

State how many hours per day you have been working or in rehabilitative work activity.

Also tell Kela if you are excluded from the labour market for such reasons as hospital treatment, rehabilitation, other inpatient treatment, or imprisonment.
